Offense charged: Conspiracy to Distribute Crack Cocaine; Distribution of Crack Cocaine

Date of Detention Hearing: May 29, 2007

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

1. Defendant has been charged with two drug offenses, the minimum penalty of which is in excess of ten years. There is therefore a rebuttable presumption against defendant as to both

01 dangerousness and flight risk, under 18 U.S.C. §3142(e). The charges carry a potential ten year 02 mandatory minimum.

03         2. Defendant is a long time resident of this District. However, neither his employment 04 nor his residence address cannot be verified. The defendant is associated with alias names and 05 social security numbers. His criminal history includes weapons charges from the 1990s. He has 06 history of multiples failures to appear as recently as April 2007. During a search of a hotel room 07 incident to the defendant's hotel room, items consistent with cocaine manufacture were allegedly 08 seized. The defendant is an alleged user of illegal substances. The strength of the government's 09 evidence is extremely strong, as the government alleges to have evidence showing the defendant 10 participating in multiple drug transactions.

11         3. Taken as a whole, the record does not effectively rebut the presumption that no 12 condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as 13 required and the safety of the community.

14 It is therefore ORDERED:

15         (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the 16 Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent 17 practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody 18 pending appeal;

19         (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 20 counsel;

21         (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the 22 Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is

01 confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of 02 an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and

- 03 (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to 04 counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States
05 Pretrial Services Officer.

06 DATED this 29th day of May, 2007.
